Information Items

Literacy Week

Next week, students and staff will be exploring what literacy is (hint: Literacy is like having a superpower that lets you read stories, write your own ideas, and understand the world around you!). This year, our theme for the week is Poetry! Students from kindergarten to grade 5 will have the chance to participate in daily opportunities to create and engage with poetry. Please ask your child(ren) what they are doing throughout the week as it will be a fun week of learning for all.

Pickleball Club

Macaulay staff + Volunteer instructors from our local Pickleball organization are offering a new club opportunity for Grade 4 and 5 students. It will take place on Wednesdays at lunch recess. If we get low numbers, we may open it up to grade 3s, but for now it's 4/5s. It will start next Wednesday, January 28th.

Also, as a result, we will be moving Hockey Club for grades 2-5 to Fridays starting next week.

Kindergarten Registration

French Immersion registration is now closed. Online registration for English Kindergarten opens at 8:00 am on January 26, 2026 and closes on January 30,

Carnaval Week - Why Plaid? Why Bonhomme?

People at the Carnaval de Québec wear plaid, particularly red and black buffalo plaid, as a nod to Canadian heritage, specifically honoring the traditional clothing of lumberjacks, traders, and the early French settlers who worked in the cold. It is a practical, warm fashion choice that also symbolizes strength, resilience, and the "joie de vivre" (love of life) during the harsh winter.

- Plaid flannel, along with the ceinture fléchée (arrowhead sash), is a tribute to French-Canadian and Métis history, evoking the fur trade era and early Québécois identity.
- Honoring "La Vie de Bois": It reflects the style of the iconic Canadian lumberjack, celebrating a time when this type of clothing was essential for working in the woods.
- Wearing plaid helps create a collective, visual, and traditional, yet casual, theme .... aligning with the "joie de vivre" spirit of the festival.

The mascot of the festival, Bonhomme ( who appeared twice this week and popped into classes) is strongly associated with traditional attire, including the sash, which encourages participants to adopt a similar rustic, traditional look.

Below are a few pictures of our staff having a lot of fun wearing plaid and beards and today's ice castles!
